COMMUNITY EDUCATION AWARDS

In association with The Police Community Clubs of Great Britain

Northern Branch Office
Murlain House
Union Street
Chester CH1 1QP

Telephone: 0330 0165008

Email: kevin@ceawards.co.uk

Main Awards Sponsor

Branding

- The individual award chosen will be re-branded with your company name
- Company logo and details to feature in the sponsors section of the community education awards website
- Branding on all documents, marketing material and entry forms pertaining to the award sponsored
- Branding on all emails to schools, all school feedback documents and all competition material pertaining to the award sponsored
- Company logo on 2000 Barney & Echo books distributed to local Primary Schools
- Company logo on 20 No Respect Cause and Effect packs distributed to secondary schools
- Company logo carried on every book delivered to schools across the uk during the awards period. (Approximately 10,000 per month excluding holidays)

Advertising

- Press pack provided for advertising submissions to local newspapers and relevant industry publications
- Editorial feature in the Police Community Clubs Community Aware Magazine
- Half Page advert in the Community Education Awards Magazine highlighting shortlisted schools and the winners in each category and of each award
- Press release and CEA logo provided for sponsorship to be highlighted on your website

PR

- Opportunity to arrange presentation of Books plus Additional resources to a local Primary School
- The opportunity to present the Award to the winning School

ChildLine founder Dame Esther Rantzen is proud to act as brand ambassador for The Community Education Awards

Dame Esther Rantzen has campaigned tirelessly for children's rights for more than 30 years. Having first found fame as the presenter of That's Life! - the BBC's long-running consumer programme - she went on to set up ChildLine, the first 24-hour confidential helpline for children. After it was merged with the NSPCC she went on to serve as the charity's trustee and continues to work for child welfare.

THE COMMUNITY EDUCATION AWARDS

Award Categories

Environment
Technology
Health, Safety and Lifestyle
Finance, Enterprise and Employment
Individual